

BLACK PILS

IN A NUTSHELL HERBAL, SPICY AND EARTHY WITH A HINT OF CHOCOLATE. LIGHT BLACK.

Black: or thereabouts, with just a shaft of red when held up to the light.

Pils: most definitely. Lean, herbal, spicy and dry with that telltale strawlike malt character for which Pils is renowned. A clean and cool fermentation with our favourite lager yeast gives this beer a gentle mineral backbone, while the malt lends a soft, subtle roast character. Spicy hop notes round out the mix making this a straight-up Pils; except it's black...

Another misnomer - that makes perfect sense.

Looks like a Stout, drinks like a Pils.
