

UNITE RED ALE

IN A NUTSHELL SPICY, MALTY, RICH AND FULL. BREW LIKE A GIRL.

On March 8th this year the Wheaty Brewing Corps collaborated with more than 100 Breweries from around the World on an International Women's Day brew; Unite Red Ale. Everyone brewed to the same specs as set-out by the Pink Boots Society - Red SRM, 50 IBUs, 4.6% abv, Willamette Hops - and came up with wildly varying beers. In the spirit of collaboration, we were joined on Brewday by Adelaide Roller Derby legends Bride of Skatan, Vaderella & DeBoate, who relished the opportunity to wield mash paddles and hydration collars for a cause.

In terms of the IWCBDB beer itself we played it pretty straight. In the quest for blood (Red) we enlisted New Zealand Micro-Malsters Gladfield and their fearsome specialties Redback, Shepherd's Delight and Dark Crystal. To keep things fresh we spiced Unite with plenty of Southern Hemisphere Hops: Wakatu, Pacific Jade and Galaxy. As an exercise in restraint we fermented long and cool with Irish Ale yeast. The result: a balanced, fresh and full bodied Red, wearing sensible brews...If you can Brew nice, Brew Derby.

What's that you say? The Wheaty brewing 'straight' and Derby playing 'nice'? Has the battle been won and inequality squeezed to the strip drain from whence it came? Not on your life...
