

FUG OATS THIS IS POINT OF DIFFERENCE

IN A NUTSHELL OATY, PINEY AND SMOOTH. VERY UNIQUE SELLING POINT.

For our second extraordinary Good Beer Wheaty Yeastie 2014 spooning (collaboration), we cosied up to To Øl Tobias, Sixpoint Shane (from afar) and Yeastie Boy 'Head Spooner' Stu. Our mission: Hoppy.

Shane: Galaxy Galaxy Galaxy!

Tobias: Oats

Stu: Fug Oats. Fuggle family hops in an oat pale...

Thankfully the modernists won, we swapped out Fuggles for 'overtly fruity new age' hops while keeping the choice name, used loads of late Simcoe, Vic Secret and Galaxy to test out our new Whirlpool and dry hopped with same. The result is an intense pineapple pungency upfront with just enough piney bite in the finish, which, combined with a smooth honey, oaty body makes for a gentle and polite 'Fug Oats'. Certainly the most conventional of our Spoonings; which positions it perfectly as our F*ck Art, Fug Oats, This is Point of Difference.
