

FOREIGN EXTRA

IN A NUTSHELL ROASTY, CREAMY AND FULL. RUM, RAISIN AND THE LASH.

On the fuller side of the Foreign Extra divide, our roasty, rich and bitter stout tempers grainy sharpness with smooth creaminess from the use of flaked barley in the mash and soft fruitiness from an English Ale yeast ferment. With lashings of molasses, dried fruit and cocoa and enough warming alcohol to relax you that little bit further into the couch, Foreign Extra is a straight-up, old fashioned restorative stout.

For old time's sake.
