

(COMA)TOES

IN A NUTSHELL RICH, TROPICAL, BRACING AND BITTER. HOP CAT.

For the last ten years, Creative Original Music Adelaide (COMA) has been a ‘first and third Monday of the month’ fixture at the Wheaty, clocking-up around 500 performances over the decade. COMA is a musician-led, musician-focused, member based, not-for-profit association, committed to presenting and raising the profile of original music in Adelaide; think jazz, improv, new classical and electronic. And something referred to as ‘pink noise’...

We figured a Double IPA would fit the bill for COMA’s 10th Birthday brew: big enough to justify the name ‘(COMA)Toes’, complex enough to require attention, smooth enough to soothe any aural memory of pink noise and loaded with enough Nelson flowers to satisfy the most dedicated Hop Cat.

And it’s a Wheaty original; our first ever Double IPA.

Happy Birthday COMA.
