

FRITZ

IN A NUTSHELL MILKY PINK PALE. HIBISCUS

Fritz: The Magazine. The Band. The Beer.

In February this year we teamed up with the roguish crew from Fritz Magazine to brew a 'Fritz inspired' beer - more in the spirit of shits & giggles than earlobes & arseholes. A beer relying on Hibiscus and Wheat for that telltale milky pinkness rather than sawdust and animal offcuts - a beer that is disconcertingly moreish nonetheless...

We'll be launching the latest edition of Fritz Magazine (featuring a cracker write-up of Brew Day) and tapping Fritz Hibiscus Pale Ale on a smiley Sunday in April - and because too much Fritz is never enough, Fritz Dolly will be peddling their saucy tunes in the Front Bar.

Bung on!
